NI SPECIAL AWARD

Winner: e-ognition Hamburg

Car Number: 78

COMMENTS:

At the Formula Student East 2017 our Engineering Design Judge team would like to give the NI special prize to the Hamburg ev.

This team has earned the attention of our engineering judge team with their outstanding engineering solutions in the electric powertrain. They have showed remarkable progress from the previous years and with their attitude and bright vision for the future we could see an impressive potential to achive all of their goals. We hope this prize would move them closer to reach it.
